WHOLESALE GROWERS

Specializing in Cannas

Largest exclusive canna farm of its kind in the world

HORN True to Name Cannas are the product of 19 years' experience. The farm is centrally located in the United States and ships to all states and many foreign countries. The Cannas are irrigated with the overhead sprinkler system under ideal growing conditions. They are sprayed regularly with state-recommended insecticides and are state inspected before shipment. Four modern concrete buildings with a storage capacity of 63,000 cubic feet, equipped with controlled heat and air conditioning facilities, provide storage for the 3,000,000 divisions.

Building for . . the Future

The Horn Canna Farm started on a shoestring and an idea in 1931. It has grown until today it covers the United States and many foreign countries.

Sincere personal service has built a nation-wide business. We attribute our growth to the fact that we have considered every order a sacred trust between us and the final purchaser.

Our future business depends not only upon your satisfaction, but the satisfaction of your customers. We want your future business, and the only way we can expect to deserve it is by giving our personal attention to every order.

Yours to serve,

HORN CANNA FARM,
Neil J. Horn, Owner.
